The Citizens of Raleich-Who Skedad-dled and Who Didn't.

[Releigh Correspondence of the M. Y. Tribune.] The large insjority of the people remained, very sensibly refusing to follow the lead of a few chief rebels whose consciences would not permit them to look the Union army in the face. Among the principal public men who skedaddled were Celonel

D. K. McRae, editor of the Confederate, formerly Consul to Paris and Gov. Vance's sgent to Europe. McBae was Colenel of the 5th North Carolina troops, which posi-tion he resigned (after fighting away his command without getting wounded him-self) for the reason that Jeff would not make him a Brigadicz.

M. S. Robbins, of the Conservative, known in this locality as "Vance's little image," accoted. Colonels Little and Barnes, Vance's aids, and A. M. McPhesters, the Governor's private secretary, followed their retreating chief. C. Randolph Thomas, Secretary of State, was the only State offi cer who remained at his post. Mr. Thomas does not look much scared. The Confed-evacuation of the city obliged them to sus-pend. Mr. Holden has been considerably annoyed, and even threatened, by the reb-els during the last days of their rule here,

The symptoms of Unitarity, as they generally appear, are as first very slight. Pecana find they have a cold, that they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of benperature. In this condition, the nose may be day, or a slight discharge, thin and sorld, atterwards becoming thick and adhesive. As the discase becomes chronic the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offeasive, causing a bad breath; the voice is thick and nessal; the cyse are weak; the sense of the small is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place. Another common and important symptom of Caisart is, that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a thick or almy nucues, which has fallen down from the head further than the stakes place the person may be sure that his disease in on its way to the lunge, and should lose no time in arresting it.
